Wow

we just spent 8 hours solid with her and in particular 3 witnesses and 1 alleged offender, (plus the nearly 20 other people who popped in from the hot sun to see her, including various family members including a grandchild or two, about 30 phone calls, 1 cleaner, 2 seniors, 1 uncle and upto 11 people in the office at one time)
The long and the short of it, is that yes he did abuse her, but because the 2 women helped set up the granddaughter, the stories were ofcourse not collaborating each other, and so he will likely get off with a bigger warning than he has already got, and the 2 women have spoiled the 13yr olds reputation.

Aside from that, we got to see her skill and style and sensitivity and her smarts.
And she is good, very good.

We got to met her 3 sidekicks who share another tiny wee office
And she got to observe and suss us out

And all and all, an excellent day.

Not what we had exactly gone for, or so we thought! lol

But I was aware of your prayers yet again.
Knew it was youse guys!
